"As we continue to curate and expand our tenant mix, these new members will add a new level of excitement for our shoppers and visitors at Chinatown Street Market. We aim to promote Chinatown Singapore as a vibrant destination that offers exciting street market experiences," said Ms. Lim Yick Suan, Executive Director, Chinatown Business Association.

To celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival while learning about Chinese traditions and customs, CBA is organising a series of workshops, in collaboration with its tenants, stakeholders and partners. These small scale workshops will be held at the Chinatown street market during September weekends. Participating families and friends can bond over mooncake making workshops, storytelling sessions, lantern making activities and tea appreciation sessions. Besides these programs, visitors to Chinatown can also enjoy street light-ups, and capture great moments under the moonlight.
